

Let me add how much our group has appreciated your concern. Whether or not the letter gets the 100 signatures that you had hoped for, it has definitely succeeded in raising public awareness about Salvadoran refugees who are caught between a rock and a hard place. And that is an important first step.

Sincerely,

Virginia Zangew

cc: Jim McGovern