Animal Rescue League of Boston

“The Animal Rescue League is a non-profit organization dedicated to rescuing domesticated animals and wildlife from suffering, cruelty, abandonment, and neglect. Since 1899 we have advocated the philosophy of our founder, Anna Harris Smith, that ‘Kindness Uplifts the World’.”

“The Animal Rescue League of Boston will be a leader among animal welfare organizations in providing rescue and law enforcement services and promoting a compassionate and responsible attitude towards all living beings. The Animal Rescue League of Boston envisions a day when all pets are cherished, and animals are no longer threatened with abandonment, neglect, abuse, exploitation, or extinction. The Animal Rescue League of Boston will accomplish its mission by focusing on the following objectives:

- To be a national leader in humane rescue of animals in need;
- To be the community leader for humane investigation and the prevention of cruelty to animals;
- To enrich the quality of life for our region through our outreach and educational programs;
- To maintain state of the art facilities that emphasize humane care, treatment and encourage adoption;
- To develop and implement long-range plans that ensure the future of the organization;
- To enlist the confidence of our donors, members, and the community at large by demonstrating effective services and sound business practices which encourage a culture of philanthropy and investment in the Animal Rescue League of Boston.”
