Are you ready for an academic adventure?

At Suffolk Madrid, in the center of the city's university district, you will experience the best of two worlds—an American learning experience in the heart of Spanish culture. Your education will feature courses that are taught in English and Spanish and are small in size so you can enjoy your professors' individual attention. You will also benefit from our caring administrators and staff members, who plan activities and offer resources to help you maximize your time abroad. And Madrid's central location lets you easily explore other Spanish cities and regions on one of our group trips or on your own.

Suffolk Madrid's partnership with neighboring Universidad San Pablo CEU allows you to enjoy this prestigious institution's academic and cultural opportunities, too. During its 70-year existence, Universidad San Pablo CEU has earned acclaim for its academic excellence, research, and technological innovation.
