Academic Gateways	Country Analysis	Trade Laws, Regulations, & Policy
Guides to Exporting & Importing	Industry / Commodity Profiles	Selected Print Resources

This guide provides selected information resources on International Trade and Business. Included are the Mildred F. Sawyer Library subscription databases, governmental, academic, and private websites, and a brief list of print resources. For specific book and periodical titles, check the Suffolk University Library Catalog.

Online Reference Sources & Periodical Databases:

The Sawyer Library subscribes to several specialized resources which are applicable to topics in international trade and business. These resources include:

Country Information, and Global Issues

Global Industries and Companies

International Market Research

Financial & Business Statistics, and Global Economics

Business journals and newspapers are also well represented, and all of these resources are available both on campus and off campus.

Country Information and Global Issues:

Economist Intelligence Unit: EIU Country Commerce

Reports on the operating environment, commercial indicators, and foreign trade of nearly 60 countries. Includes investing, taxation, licensing, human resources, and trade statistics.

SourceOECD

Self described as the "OECD's Online Library of Statistical Databases, Books and Periodicals," this is a massive resource. Journals titles include the OECD Economic Outlook and the OECD Economic Surveys; statistical sources include the National Accounts of OECD Countries and Country Statistical Profiles, which are annually updated snapshots of data selected from more than 40 statistical OECD databases.

Europa World

This is the online version of the Europa World Year Book, which covers "political and economic information in over 250 countries and territories, from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe." Note the comparative statistics section, which allows the comparison of two or more nations in the areas of agriculture, industry, finance, trade, and education.

Global Issues in Context

Global Issues in Context aims to provide international perspectives on topics of global importance and current world events. Although this is not an 'opposing viewpoints' database, Global Issues in Context does bring together a variety of sources to present and analyse issues in many areas: social, political, military, economic, environmental, and cultural. Global Issues in Context includes primary sources, statistics, over 200 international newspaper sources, and video content.

Political Handbook of the World

The CQ Press Political Handbook of the World (grouped with other resources from CQ Press in the CQ Press Political Reference Suite) provides authoritative government and political information on countries around the world. The Political Handbook brings a mixture of facts (i.e. monetary unit, heads of government) and analysis, including: historical trends, regime changes, constitutional history; regional and global policy issues specific to each country; political parties and organizations; recent national election results; and the circulation and political affiliation of major national media, as well as television coverage and Internet usage. Finally, the Handbook also describes 120 intergovernmental organizations, such as OPEC, NATO, the WTO, world and regional banks, and the agencies of the United Nations.

CountryWatch

Provides political, economic, and social overviews on most countries. Includes macroeconomic trade, key sector data, and news about the operating climate.

Mergent Online

Mergent Online is primarily used to find detailed financial information about publicly traded companies, however users will find an option for country profiles, and the advanced search may be used to identify companies operating in foreign countries. Sawyer Library has a license for three simultaneous users, therefore please "log out" when you have completed your research.

Columbia International Affairs Online \(CIAO\)

Columbia International Affairs Online (CIAO) is a database for theory and research in international affairs. It contains a wide range of scholarship, dating from 1991 onward, that includes working papers, occasional papers, policy briefs, conferences proceedings, case studies, e-books, and journals. In addition, the "atlas" section contains political and economic reports from the Economist Intelligence Unit for most of the world's countries.

Global Industries and Companies:

S & P NetAdvantage: Global Industries

The 'Industries' section of Standard & Poor's NedAdvantage (located in the top blue banner) leads to both U.S. Industry Surveys (covering 52 industries) and to Global Industry Surveys, which cover 26 industries, grouped by region (Asia, Europe, Latin America).

Mergent Online

Mergent Online is primarily used to find detailed financial information about publicly traded companies, however users will find an option for industry reports, covering 29 industries in North America, Asia Pacific, and Europe. There are also brief country profiles, and the advanced search may be used to identify companies operating in foreign countries. Sawyer Library has a license for three simultaneous users, therefore please "log out" when you have completed your research.

RDS Business Suite

RDS Business Suite (from Gale Cengage) consists of three components: Business & Industry, Business & Management Practices, and TableBase. Users may search the components separately or simultaneously. The Business & Industry section focuses on information about companies, industries, products and markets. It covers all industries, both in the United States and internationally.

LexisNexis Academic

Lexis covers a wide range of business information resources, including newspapers (domestic and foreign), trade journals, wire services, and transcripts. The Country Profiles section (under Business) covers news, current business opportunities, and assessments of the potential risk of doing business in a particular country. The Company Profiles section includes international company reports, and the SEC filings section will search for SEC 20-F reports (submitted by foreign companies trading in American stock exchanges).

Corporate Affiliations

Use the Advanced Search function of this directory to search for companies by name, location (city, zip, state, or country), product, or SIC. For example, for a list of American owned companies operating in Iceland, search for USA as the Parent Country, and Iceland as the Country. The library has only one license for simultaneous use; please "log out" when you have completed your session.

International Market Research:

Global Market Information Database (GMID)

Produced by Euromonitor, this database provides very detailed international market research, presented as industry, company, country, and consumer reports. Although difficult to use, users may find detailed reports on specific subsets of industries throughout the world. Three recent examples are reports on the market for fast food in Germany, the retailing of durable goods in Egypt, and products and services in the market for eye care in Taiwan.

STAT-USA (STAT-USA will be discontinued on 09/30/2010.)

STAT-USA "contains the international trade information of the National Trade Data Bank (NTDB) as well as an extensive collection of domestic economic data." Features include trade opportunity leads and foreign market reports. Choose the "Globus & NTDB" section for access to the international trade information and the Country Commercial Guides. Unfortunately, the service will be closed as of 09/30/2010.

Financial & Business Statistics, and Global Economics:

International Financial Statistics (IMF)

International Financial Statistics [from the Statistics Department of the International Monetary Fund] provides "current data needed in the analysis of problems of international payments and of inflation and deflation, i.e., data on exchange rates, international liquidity, international banking, money and banking, interest rates, prices, production, international transactions, government accounts, and national accounts." Time series data is available back to 1948. Users may browse the database, select and display a series in a spreadsheet format, and download to Microsoft Excel. Print versions of this data is available in the International Financial Statistics Yearbook and the IMF also provides some information and data on its website.

TableBase (Part of the RDS Business Suite)

TableBase presents business information in tabular format, such as: market share, market size, capacity, production, imports, exports, sales, and product rankings. Tables are drawn from statistical annuals, brokerage reports, trade association reports, and governmental reports.

The Conference Board

The Conference Board is a non-profit, nonpartisan organization that researches, forecasts trends, and publishes reports on management and the global marketplace. The Economic Research section includes the latest indicators of regional indexes, links to issues of the StraightTalk Newsletter & Forecast, which cover topics such as Global Trade and Growth, Exchange Rates, and Global Financial Flows.

Global Development Finance

Sawyer Circ. CD-ROM (REF) HJ8899 .W672 2006 CD ROM

Accompanies the print title by the same name, produced by the World Bank.

World Development Indicators

Ebrary electronic resource.

Produced by the World Bank, World Indicators provides over 500 timeseries indicators, indexed by country, series, and year(s).

Business journals and newspapers

Business Source Complete

Business Source Complete provides full-text for over 8,800 business sources, including "1,100 scholarly business publications." Areas of coverage include economics, finance, accounting, and international business. Publications are wide ranging; sample titles include the OECD Economic Surveys (37 countries) and the Harvard Business Review. If your search terms include the name of a country, and Ebsco has identified any articles containing significant country economic data, then those results will sort into a folder for Country Reports (i.e. trade and Iceland).

Alternatively, users may also choose the Enhanced Business Searching Interface (displayed on the Ebsco 'choose databases' screen) for direct access to country report publications.

Wall Street Journal

The Wall Street Journal, the financial newspaper of record, offers coverage of national and international finance and business news. Full-text coverage extends from 1984 to the present.

LexisNexis Academic: News

Lexis covers a wide range of news resources, including both domestic and foreign newspapers, business news sources, trade journals, wire services, and transcripts.

International Organizations

World Trade Organization

<http://www.wto.org/>

The World Trade Organization (WTO) was established in 1995 and has a membership of 151 countries (as of 27 July 2007). It is "the only global international organization dealing with the rules of trade between nations. At its heart are the WTO agreements, negotiated and signed by the bulk of the world's trading nations and ratified in their parliaments."

WTO Resources include:

- Trade Policy Reviews, listed chronologically, or searchable by country. The national trade policies of all WTO members are reviewed regularly, based on the frequency of each country's review varying according to its share of world trade. The reports may be opened as a word document.
- International trade statistics
- Legal texts and documents
- Dispute Settlement: Disputes by country/territory
- WTO news
- Trade topics grouped by goods, services, and intellectual property.

International Trade Centre \(ITC\) of UNCTAD / WTO

<http://www.intracen.org/>

The ITC's mandate is to help developing and transition economies "realize their full potential for developing exports and improving import operations." Resources include market development programmes for selected products and services and country specific trade analysis for selected countries. Some material is freely available, however many reports require payment.

United Nations Statistics Division

<http://unstats.un.org/unsd/default.htm>

The U.N. Statistics Division compiles and disseminates global statistical information. To that end, it has several databases available, including UN comtrade - the United Nations Commodity Trade Statistics Database, (<http://comtrade.un.org>), which in addition to commodity statistics also provides information and data on International Merchandise Trade Statistics.

OECD: Trade

http://www.oecd.org/topic/0,2686,en_2649_37431_1_1_1_1_37431,00.html

The "Trade" section off of the main OECD (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development) website (www.oecd.org) provides copious numbers of reports and data, such as statistics on international trade in both goods and services, and key statistics on economics, development, industry, and social issues. Many reports are freely available, however some do require payment.

EUROPA: Gateway to the European Union

http://europa.eu/index_en.htm

This is the portal site of the European Union. Users will find EU legislation, the websites of each EU institution, EU news, and statistics. Although many EU reports and publications require purchase, a good amount of content is available through the statistical section Eurostat such as long term and short term indicators, Statistics in Focus (summaries of statistical surveys), and working papers. In addition, information about the European currency may be found at Information on the euro, (http://ec.europa.eu/economy_finance/euro/index_en.htm).

ICC: International Chamber of Commerce

<http://www.iccwbo.org/>

The International Chamber of Commerce, founded in 1919, has the mission of supporting world business by "promoting trade and investment, open markets for goods and services, and the free flow of capital." Accordingly, the ICC has direct communication with the United Nations system and other intergovernmental groups such as the G8 (the major industrialized nations and Russia). The ICC has developed codes and policies in areas such as direct marketing and advertising, arbitration, and intellectual property. These policies as well as current and archived news relating to international business are available in full-text, and many documents are in both English and French.

SICE: Foreign Trade Information System

<http://www.sice.oas.org/>

SICE, "Sistema de Información al Comercio Exterior" or "Foreign Trade Information System" is "the information technology arm of the Trade Unit of the Organization of American States (OAS)." The goal of SICE is to provide access to documents on trade in the Western Hemisphere. Content includes the full-text and summaries of trade agreements, investment treaties, and dispute settlements in the Western Hemisphere.

Academic Gateways

YaleGlobal Online Magazine

<http://yaleglobal.yale.edu/>

"A Publication of Yale Center for the Study of Globalization."

International Business and Economics - WWW Virtual Library

globalEDGE Resource Desk

<http://globaledge.msu.edu/resourceDesk/>

GlobalEDGE is part of Michigan State University's Center for International Business Education and Research (MSU-CIBER). The content covers topics relevant to international trade and competitiveness, such as trade tutorials, comparison of emerging markets, and a glossary of international business terms and acronyms.

Guides to Exporting and Importing

Take Your Business Global: A Small Business Guide to Exporting

http://www.sba.gov/idc/groups/public/documents/sba_program_office/oit_business_global_workbook.pdf

An excellent guide produced by the United States Small Business Administration. Topics include: Identifying International Markets, Foreign Market Entry, the Export Transaction, Export Financing, Transporting Goods Internationally, and Strategic Alliances & Foreign Investment Opportunities.

Export Basics

<http://www.export.gov/exportbasics/index.asp>

The government portal to exporting, Export.gov has prepared Export Basics to help potential exporters to develop an export plan, identify and sell to their market, and secure export financing. Unfortunately, access to some of this information (i.e. the market research reports) now requires registration.

TradePort - International Trade

<http://www.tradeport.org/>

TradePort provides information for businesses that seek to establish trade to and from California. Categories include an export / global trade tutorial, and an import tutorial.

Federal Government Trade Gateways

Export.gov

<http://www.export.gov/>

Billed as the "U.S. Government Export Portal," this site is a gateway to trade information. Categories include country and industry market research, a basic export tutorial, current export news, and tips on pricing, shipping, and documentation. Until recently, all of this information was available for free; now registration (free) is required to access several areas such as the market research, and users must be affiliated with a U.S. company.

International Trade Administration \(ITA\)

<http://trade.gov/index.asp>

The ITA is the primary unit for trade within the Department of Commerce. Its mission is to promote U.S. exports of manufactured goods, nonagricultural commodities, and services. A good starting point for locating statistical, legal, and market access information.

SBA Office of International Trade

<http://www.sba.gov/aboutsba/sbaprograms/internationaltrade/index.html>

This site, from the U.S. Small Business Administration's Office of International Trade, offers many downloadable publications and information on all aspects of small business finance, including export finance programs.

Business.gov: Import / Export

<http://www.business.gov/guides/import-export/>

International trade is one of the topics covered by the Business.gov website sponsored by the Small Business Administration. Users will find links to information on laws and regulations, trade finance, trade leads, and exporting.

Trade Statistics

Trade statistics collected and published by United States government agencies often contain detailed data on foreign countries, however this data is provided to illuminate the trade relationships of foreign countries with the United States. Locating complete trade statistics for a given country usually requires consulting the data collection sources of that country or of an international organization.

WTO: International trade and tariff data

http://www.wto.org/english/res_e/statis_e/statis_e.htm

This section of the WTO website includes the annual International Trade Statistics, which compiles "leading traders, trade by sector and product, regional trade, LDCs, etc." Archives are available back to 1998. In addition, there are links to a Statistics Database allowing the retrieval of up-to-date trade information as "Trade Profiles," "Tariff Profiles," or as a "Time Series on merchandise and commercial services trade," and links to the websites of foreign national statistical offices (pdf format) and other sources of trade statistics for foreign countries.

IMF: Statistical Topics

<http://www.imf.org/external/np/sta/index.htm>

Includes a link to Country Specific IMF Statistical Reports on the economic conditions of individual countries. Suffolk University students and faculty may also access the online version of the IMF's International Financial Statistics.

UNcomtrade: Country Pages: 2009 Yearbook

<http://comtrade.un.org/pb/CountryPagesNew.aspx?y=2009>

The United Nations Commodity Trade Statistics Database provides import / export statistics by country. For each country listed, there are trade statistics sorted by principle trade partners and by principle commodities. Earlier years (2005-2008) are also available from the tab "country pages."

U.S. Census Bureau: International Statistical Agencies

http://www.census.gov/aboutus/stat_int.html

A list of links to the statistical agencies of 139 foreign countries, from Albania to Zambia, provided by the U.S. Census Bureau.

Foreign Trade Statistics

<http://www.census.gov/foreign-trade/statistics/index.html>

The Foreign Trade Division of the U.S. Census Bureau (which in turn is under the Department of Commerce), collects statistics on foreign trade. Data sets include: statistics by commodity classifications, country balances and top trading partners, state export data (by commodity and country for each state), and historical trade balances going back as far as 1960.

<http://www.intracen.org/Corporate/En/sitemap.htm>

"The International Trade Centre UNCTAD/WTO (ITC) is the focal point in the United Nations system for technical cooperation with developing countries in trade promotion." Use the Site Map to locate many freely available statistics and reports, such as: International Trade Statistics (imports/exports by product group and country and by country and product group); Countries - covering 184 countries and territories; and ITC's Sector Competitiveness, Products and Services Knowledge, a section containing reports, statistics, and general information on products such as textiles, spices, organic and artisanal products. Be forewarned that while there is much valuable information here available for free, some information, such as the Market Analysis section, requires subscription.

International Trade Administration

<http://www.ita.doc.gov/>

The International Trade Administration website provides access to a import/export statistical information, including selected industry sector and state export data.

Bureau of Economic Analysis: International Economic Accounts

<http://www.bea.gov/International/Index.htm>

The Bureau of Economic Analysis, under the U.S. Department of Commerce, provides current and historic reports on balance of payments, trade in goods and services, foreign direct investment in the United States, and U.S. direct investment abroad.

Foreign Direct Investment in the U.S.: Balance of Payments and Direct Investment Position

<http://www.bea.gov/international/di1fdibal.htm>

Capital flows: annual and quarterly tables, 1994:I-2010: I.

U.S. Direct Investment Abroad: Balance of Payments and Direct Investment Position Data

<http://www.bea.gov/international/di1usdbal.htm>

Capital flows: annual and quarterly tables, 1994:I-2010: I.

Country Analysis

Country Market Research \(Trade Compliance Center\)

http://tcc.export.gov/Country_Market_Research/index.asp

The Trade Compliance Center (TCC), part of the International Trade Administration, "provides access to commercial and economic information to help U.S. exporters understand and evaluate opportunities created by trade agreements the United States has negotiated." The freely available market access reports include the National Trade Estimate Reports on Foreign Trade Barriers, (an annual series that surveys significant foreign barriers to U.S. exports) and the WTO Trade Policy Review Summaries, which provide information on the foreign trade policies and regulations of specific countries. Choose List All Reports to browse a list of country reports.

IMF Country Reports

http://www.imf.org/external/pubs/cat/scl1_sp.cfm?s_year=1997&e_year=2005&brtype=default

Country Specific IMF reports on the economic conditions of individual countries. These lengthy reports are organized by date, 1997-2009, (they may also be sorted by title), and are available as full-text PDF files. A wider range of IMF Country information, is available at <http://www.imf.org/external/country/index.htm>.

Countries - International Trade Centre \(UNCTAD/WTO\)

<http://www.intracen.org/menus/countries.htm>

This section of the ITC website "provides links to national trade support institutions and country-specific business information. In addition, it presents trade and market profiles, Country Map, based on trade statistics which benchmark national trade performance and provide indicators on export supply and import demand." When viewing the options for a given country, choose the links marked "table" or "imports / exports" for data on that country. Other useful areas of the ITC website include the Web Index (for trade information sources, searchable by country) and a link to the ITC Online Catalogue, which has the option of browsing the periodical databases by country, region, and product.

Doing Business: Comparing Business Regulations

<http://www.doingbusiness.org/>

Doing Business SAWYER REF. DESK HD3611 .D651 2010

"The Doing Business database provides indicators of the cost of doing business by identifying specific regulations that enhance or constrain business investment, productivity, and growth. The indicators are developed by the Finance and Private Sector Vice Presidency of the World Bank Group." The database includes 178 countries, and covers the topics of licenses, employing workers, registering property, protecting investors, and taxes.

Economist Country Briefings

<http://www.economist.com/countries/>

The Country Briefings section of the Economist.com website provides a variety of content specific to individual countries: economic structure and recent data, political structure, links to countries' economic and news sources, and a selection of recent articles. Articles that are not free are marked with a symbol for premium content. Note: as of April 2010, the freely available Country Briefings are no longer being updated.

Economist Special Reports: Countries and Regions

<http://www.economist.com/specialreports/specialreportslist.cfm?category=455021>

These Economist.com articles offer little in the way of statistics and overview, but they are well written essays of covering a specific topic in a given country. Note: users must either register for a 14 day pass, or subscribe to the Economist for access.

Development Gateway: Country Gateway Network

<http://www.developmentgateway.org/programs/country-gateways/country-gateway-network.html>

This section of the Development Gateway website provides information on "business opportunities, information on development projects, publications, and statistics -- organized by country." The Development Gateway Foundation is a not-for-profit organization, with the mission to "reduce poverty and support sustainable development through the use of information and communication technologies (ICT)."

U.S. Census Bureau: Statistical Agencies \(International\)

http://www.census.gov/aboutus/stat_int.html

A list of links to the statistical agencies of 139 foreign countries, from Albania to Zambia, provided by the U.S. Census Bureau.

Cultural Profiles Project

<http://www.settlement.org/cp/english/>

The Canadian Government's Citizenship and Immigration agency (in association with the AMNI Centre of Social Work, at the University of Toronto) has created this large collection of reports on the people and culture of many lands. Each cultural profile provides an overview of life and customs in the profiled country. This is the kind of information not readily available elsewhere.

Commanding Heights: Country Reports

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/commandingheights/lo/countries/index.html>

The Country Reports make up a section of the accompanying website for WGBH's Commanding Heights: The Battle for the World Economy television series. The Country Reports "summarize the economic development of each nation from 1910 to the present and can be explored by category and by year." 41 Countries are included.

The Full Universal Currency Converter

<http://www.xe.com/ucc/full.shtml>

"This 'full' version of the Universal Currency Converter contains every known world currency: over 180 currencies in over 250 geographical locations."

Competitive Alternatives

<http://www.competitivealternatives.com/default.html>

Competitive Alternatives, produced by KPMG International (a Swiss cooperative that serves as the coordinating entity for a network of independent firms specializing in audit, tax and advisory services) "represents KPMG's guide to comparing business costs in North America, Europe and Asia Pacific. This report measures the combined impact of 27 cost components that are most likely to vary by location, as applied to specific industries and business operations. The eight-month research program covered 128 cities in nine industrialized countries: Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, Singapore, the United Kingdom, and the United States."

Sovereigns Ratings List \(Standard & Poor's\)

<http://www.standardandpoors.com/ratings/sovereigns/ratings-list/en/us/?sectorName=Governments&subSectorCode=39&subSectorName=Sovereigns>
An A-Z list of countries and their ratings.

Selected Industry / Commodity Profiles and Statistics

ITA - Trade Development - Manufacturing and Services

http://www.ita.doc.gov/td/td_home/tdhome.html

Choose one of 15 industry sectors for referral to selected industry sector information and trade statistics. Available information will vary by industry. For example, users can find the top 25 export destinations for cutlery (found under Consumer Goods - Housewares).

UN Comtrade: Commodity Pages, 2008

<http://comtrade.un.org/pb/CommodityPagesNew.aspx?y=2008>

Choose the "Long View" of the 2008 Commodity Yearbook from the United Nations Commodity Trade Statistics Database to see statistics on trade, organized by commodity. For each commodity, the report supplies data on the value of imports / exports, and the trading countries. Earlier data (2005-2007) can be found under the "commodity pages" tab.

International Trade Statistics by Product Group: Exports, 2001-2009

<http://www.intracen.org/tradstat/sitc3-3d/indexpe.htm>

International Trade Statistics by Product Group: Imports, 2001-2009

<http://www.intracen.org/tradstat/sitc3-3d/indexpi.htm>

The International Trade Centre provides nine years worth of statistics on trade organized by product group. For example, under the product group "035 - Fish,Dried/Salted/Smoked," the user will find that Norway, Iceland, and Denmark were the top three exporters in this category from 2001-2005.

Competitive Alternatives: Industries

<http://www.competitivealternatives.com/industries/default.html>

This section of the Competitive Alternatives website (a guide to international business costs produced by KPMG, a network of audit and tax services firms) provides "industry-specific results summaries" for 17 industries from four sectors, including manufacturing, research & development, software, and corporate services. Costs are compared across 128 cities in nine industrialized countries: Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, Singapore, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

Web Index to Internet Trade Information.

<http://www.intracen.org/menus/sitemap.htm>

An index to "Internet trade information sources providing references and direct links to a selection of websites covering various aspects of international trade," searchable by product/service.

Tariffs, Taxes, Product Classification, and Harmonized System \(HS\) numbers

Tariff and Import Fee Information

http://www.export.gov/logistics/eg_main_018130.asp

A guide to determine tariffs and taxes levied on U.S. products and services exported to other countries. Includes information on how to identify Harmonized System (Schedule B) numbers for your product.

Product Classification Systems

<http://faculty.philau.edu/russowl/product.html>

Developed and maintained by Lloyd C. Russow, Philadelphia University. Includes links to information on the NAICS-to-SIC or SIC-to-NAICS concordance, Harmonized Tariff Schedule, Classification of Products by Activity (European Union), and the Common Procurement Vocabulary (European Union).

FAQ: What's the difference between the Schedule B codes \(for exports\) and the Harmonized Tariff Schedule \(HTS\) codes \(for imports\)?

<http://www.census.gov/foreign-trade/faq/sb/sb0008.html>

Includes links to both the exports codes (which the U.S. calls Schedule B, and which are administered by the U.S. Census Bureau), and import codes, (which are administered by the U.S. International Trade Commission, USITC).

International Market Research

Global Trade Tutorial: Researching Your Markets
