

Richard Gregg

Instructor

Education

MBA, New York University, New York, NY, Strategic Mgmt/Org Dev/Health Care Admin, 1986

MA, Rutgers University, New Jersey, Political Science, 1976

BA, Rutgers University, New Jersey, Political Science, 1974

Teaching Interests

Research Interests

Honors/Awards

Teaching

2008: John Brennan Award for Outstanding Instruction to the graduate student population, Suffolk University Graduate Student Association.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Courses Taught

Health Marketing & Comm.

Healthcare Internship

Healthcare Strategic Mgt.

Innovation:future of Healthcare

Intro to Healthcare Programs

Org Change in Healthcare

Consulting

2007: National School Leaders Network (NSLN), Organizational Development and Strategic Planning.

INTELLECTUAL CONTRIBUTIONS

SERVICE ACTIVITIES

Public Service

Other Community Service Activities

2008: American Lung Association of Massachusetts (ALAM); Advisor and fund-raiser on efforts to develop the ALAM's Idle-Free Campaign, a statewide initiative to educate drivers about the need to protect our health and environment by eliminating unnecessary motor vehicle engine idling. Worked with the Lung Association and others to enact An Act to Improve School Campus Air Quality, which was signed by Governor Deval Patrick on December 16, 2008. The law bans all unnecessary engine idling on every school property in Massachusetts..

Professional Memberships

Faculty Associate, American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE).

Member, American Society for Public Administration (ASPA).

Member, Healthcare Management Association of Massachusetts (HCMA).