

WE'RE INVESTED IN YOUR EDUCATION

Suffolk University keeps financial aid options open for our students. All applicants to Suffolk, domestic and international, are automatically considered for merit-based scholarships, and there are dozens of scholarships and grants available.

In 2015:	93.5%	of freshmen received financial help
	$23,578	average package awarded to all new freshmen
	$115 million	in financial aid to Suffolk students

SUFFOLK
UNIVERSITY
BOSTON

suffolk.edu/finaid

WE'RE COMMITTED TO AFFORDABILITY

At Suffolk University, we believe that it's crucial to keep college education affordable for as many students as possible. And we back up that belief by offering one of the lowest tuition rates among all private, four-year institutions in New England: $35,440 for 2016-17.

To get an idea of the aid available to you at Suffolk, visit suffolk.edu/finaid and use the following tools:

- Net Price Calculator
- Merit Scholarship Estimator

Please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission at admission@suffolk.edu or 617-573-8460 for more information or answers to specific questions.

SUFFOLK
UNIVERSITY
BOSTON

suffolk.edu/finaid