Did you know that Suffolk University has an Interfaith Center that provides all the religious life for all the religions in our Suffolk community?
You can take advantage of a variety of religious events on campus, including weekly meetings, such as: Muslim Conversations, Witches, Feminists, and Pagans, Hillel; Your Jewish Community, Christians Gathering for Justice, Yoga Practice, Atheists, Humanists, Agnostics, and Anti-Theists, Zazen Buddhist Meditation, racial justice, and religion.
Something else? Let's start it.
Take advantage by following the Interfaith Center on Instagram and sign up for our weekly newsletter of events on our Linktree, @interfaithcenter.
Take advantage of confidential counseling appointments available upon request with your University chaplain, who serves as counselor, spiritual guide, educational advocate, and ethical voice on campus.
Do you have questions or concerns about: religion, racial issues, ethics, morality, bias incidents, first-generation college experience, COVID inequities, experiences faced by students of color?
The advantage for you is that all you need to do is ask.
