

00:00 Did you know that Suffolk University
00:03 has an Interfaith Center that provides 00:06 all the religious life for all the religions
00:09 in our Suffolk community?
00:11 You can take advantage of a variety
00:14 of religious events on campus, including weekly meetings,
00:18 such as: Muslim Conversations, Witches, Feminists,
00:22 and Pagans, Hillel; Your Jewish Community,
00:25 Christians Gathering for Justice, Yoga Practice,
00:30 Atheists, Humanists, Agnostics, and Anti-Theists,
00:34 (ahaa!)
00:35 Zazen Buddhist Meditation, racial justice, and religion.
00:40 Something else? Let's start it.
00:43 Take advantage by following the Interfaith Center on 00:46 Instagram and sign up for our weekly newsletter of events
00:50 on our Linktree, @interfaithcenter.
00:54 Take advantage of confidential counseling appointments
00:57 available upon request with your University chaplain,
01:01 who serves as counselor, spiritual guide,
01:04 educational advocate, and ethical voice on campus.
01:08 Do you have questions or concerns about: religion,
01:13 racial issues, ethics, morality, bias incidents,
01:17 first-generation college experience, COVID inequities,
01:22 experiences faced by students of color?
01:25 The advantage for you is that all you need to do is ask.
