

00:00 Hi everyone.
00:01 My name is Ana Delgado.
00:02 I use she, her pronouns,
00:04 and I am one of the legal research librarians
00:06 over at the Moakley Law Library.
00:08 At the Moakley Law Library,
00:10 we're committed to advancing diversity
00:11 and inclusion initiatives.
00:13 And we're actively engaged in developing programming
00:15 and acquire resources to better serve our community.
00:18 To that end, I want to share with you
00:20 some of the resource that we have at your disposal.
00:23 Our collection includes resources from civil rights
00:25 and social justice,
00:27 (indistinct) success and professional developments lessons.
00:30 We'll also have resources to stay on top of current events
00:33 with news outlets like the Washington Post,
00:35 the New York Times and the Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly.
00:39 Our resources are available online and in print.
00:42 Our collection development and acquisition process
00:44 is dynamic event where we're committed to exploring
00:48 and adopting new materials and approaches
00:50 to best meet the evolving needs of our community.
00:53 Our team of law librarians and library staff
00:55 is committed to you and your professional development.
00:58 We invite you to visit the law library,
01:00 to meet our dedicated law library team
01:02 and take advantage of our resources.
01:04 We also encourage you to reach out to us through phone
01:07 or email for any of our legal research needs.
01:09 Hope to see you soon.
01:38 <v ->Hi, I'm Kristen Baker.</v
01:39 I use she, her, hers pronouns
01:41 and I'm the director of Suffolk Performing Arts.
01:44 Performing arts is a non-academic arts involvement program.
01:48 Our mission is to lower barriers for arts participation
01:50 for everyone at Suffolk,
01:51 no matter what your major is or your experience level,
01:54 we believe the arts are for everyone.
01:56 We also believe the arts are good for you.
01:58 They help you express yourself, build poison confidence,
02:01 and teach transferable skills like collaboration,
02:04 creative thinking and problem solving.
02:06 Plus it's fun, it's a great way to make friends,
02:08 connect with your community
02:09 and plus when you get on stage people clap
02:11 and that's amazing.
02:13 We have three main areas of things that we do.
02:15 We support our student performing arts groups and clubs.
02:18 We produce plays and musicals that anyone can audition for.
02:21 And we have a slew of resources to help you see
02:23 and do more art on campus and across Boston.
02:27 We hope that you'll check out one of our programs

02:29 at suffolk.edu/performing-arts
02:31 or follow us on Instagram @suffolkpao.
02:34 We're always happy to answer questions
02:36 and to help you figure out
02:37 how to connect with the arts that you're interested in.
