The Suffolk Advantage

As a partner organization, your employees will enjoy a 20% tuition reduction on most of our grad programs.* Employees who meet our admission criteria automatically qualify for the PSP, which we will award directly to the candidate.

 Exception: Executive MBA discounted by $15,000 over four semesters.*

50+ Graduate Program Options

With 50+ graduate degree, dual degree, certificate, and academic microcredential options to choose from, Suffolk has what your employees need to challenge themselves and advance their expertise.

Retention Tool

Suffolk's PSP is a strategic way to build employee retention. Eligibility for tuition reductions each semester will be contingent upon recipient's continued employment with your organization.

Partnership Made Easy

Suffolk commits to:

- Selecting an internal liaison as a point of contact
- Conducting virtual or in-person information sessions for employees
- Providing content examples to use for email, newsletter, digital, and print announcements

Partner agrees to:

- Selecting an internal liaison as a point of contact
- Promoting the program through internal employee communication channels
- Allowing Suffolk to conduct up to two onsite or virtual information sessions for employees or exhibit tables at events annually
