

John Joseph Moakley Archive & Institute at Suffolk University

John Joseph Moakley: In Service to His Country

Traveling Exhibit Information Packet

About the Exhibit

The In Service to his Country traveling exhibit illustrates the Congressman's dedication to serving the nation and the state of Massachusetts. The exhibit utilizes Moakley's papers, photographs and memorabilia to illustrate that his legacy is local, national, and global.

Exhibit Dimensions: The exhibit consists of 3 double-sided units which are free-standing and adaptable to fit in a variety of spaces. Each unit measures 7 ft. high and 1.5 ft. wide.

Hosting the Exhibit

The exhibit is available, free of charge, to groups or institutions for display. For more information about borrowing the exhibit, please contact the Moakley Archive and Institute at 617-305-6295 or moakley@suffolk.edu.

About the Moakley Archive and Institute

The John Joseph Moakley Archive and Institute at Suffolk University was established in 2001 upon Congressman Moakley's gift of his papers and memorabilia. It is dedicated to the preservation, study, interpretation and celebration of Congressman Moakley's legacy of public service and political leadership. John Joseph "Joe" Moakley (1927-2001) of South Boston represented the Massachusetts Ninth Congressional District from 1973 until his death in 2001.