Q17. The ACLU is suing the federal government over individual privacy rights. However, the US government claims that numerous terrorist attacks have been prevented by the collection of this data. Do you believe American citizens should have to give up some privacy in order to be safer from terrorist attacks?

Q15. Recently President Obama announced that the US will send direct military aid - most likely small scale weapons and ammunition - to rebels fighting the regime of Syrian president Bashar al-Assad because of reports that al-Assad has used chemical weapons against the population. Do you agree or disagree with President Obama's decision to intervene?

Q17. The ACLU is suing the federal government over individual privacy rights. However, the US government claims that numerous terrorist attacks have been prevented by the collection of this data. Do you believe American citizens should have to give up some privacy in order to be safer from terrorist attacks?
