21. Both political parties have a 15% rule at their state conventions meaning that if a candidate does not receive 15%, he or she will not qualify for the ballot. {ROTATE Some/Other} Some people say the rule is fair because candidates must make their case directly to party activists who can determine whether a candidate is serious and values the party platform. Others say the rule is not fair because it gives too much power to party activists who can knock a candidate off the ballot even if that candidate receives the required certified signatures. Which is closer to your view – the 15% rule is fair or not fair?

(N=800)	n	%
