33. Turning to the issue of abortion, under current Massachusetts law, minors need the consent of a parent or a judge to get an abortion. State lawmakers have passed a bill to change the law so a 16- or 17-year-old can get an abortion without parental or judicial consent. Do you support or oppose this change?

34. Under current Massachusetts law, abortion is only allowed at 24 weeks or beyond if it is to protect the life or health of the mother. State lawmakers have passed a measure expanding when abortion after 24 weeks is allowed to include circumstances when a physician determines a lethal fetal anomaly or that the fetus is incompatible with sustained life outside the uterus. Do you support or oppose this change?

33. Turning to the issue of abortion, under current Massachusetts law, minors need the consent of a parent or a judge to get an abortion. State lawmakers have passed a bill to change the law so a 16- or 17-year-old can get an abortion without parental or judicial consent. Do you support or oppose this change?

34. Under current Massachusetts law, abortion is only allowed at 24 weeks or beyond if it is to protect the life or health of the mother. State lawmakers have passed a measure expanding when abortion after 24 weeks is allowed to include circumstances when a physician determines a lethal fetal anomaly or that the fetus is incompatible with sustained life outside the uterus. Do you support or oppose this change?

33. Turning to the issue of abortion, under current Massachusetts law, minors need the consent of a parent or a judge to get an abortion. State lawmakers have passed a bill to change the law so a 16- or 17-year-old can get an abortion without parental or judicial consent. Do you support or oppose this change?

34. Under current Massachusetts law, abortion is only allowed at 24 weeks or beyond if it is to protect the life or health of the mother. State lawmakers have passed a measure expanding when abortion after 24 weeks is allowed to include circumstances when a physician determines a lethal fetal anomaly or that the fetus is incompatible with sustained life outside the uterus. Do you support or oppose this change?

33. Turning to the issue of abortion, under current Massachusetts law, minors need the consent of a parent or a judge to get an abortion. State lawmakers have passed a bill to change the law so a 16- or 17-year-old can get an abortion without parental or judicial consent. Do you support or oppose this change?

34. Under current Massachusetts law, abortion is only allowed at 24 weeks or beyond if it is to protect the life or health of the mother. State lawmakers have passed a measure expanding when abortion after 24 weeks is allowed to include circumstances when a physician determines a lethal fetal anomaly or that the fetus is incompatible with sustained life outside the uterus. Do you support or oppose this change?

33. Turning to the issue of abortion, under current Massachusetts law, minors need the consent of a parent or a judge to get an abortion. State lawmakers have passed a bill to change the law so a 16- or 17-year-old can get an abortion without parental or judicial consent. Do you support or oppose this change?

34. Under current Massachusetts law, abortion is only allowed at 24 weeks or beyond if it is to protect the life or health of the mother. State lawmakers have passed a measure expanding when abortion after 24 weeks is allowed to include circumstances when a physician determines a lethal fetal anomaly or that the fetus is incompatible with sustained life outside the uterus. 33. Turning to the issue of abortion, under current Massachusetts law, minors need the consent of a parent or a judge to get an abortion. State lawmakers have passed a bill to change the law so a 16- or 17-year-old can get an abortion without parental or judicial consent. Do you support or oppose this change?

34. Under current Massachusetts law, abortion is only allowed at 24 weeks or beyond if it is to protect the life or health of the mother. State lawmakers have passed a measure expanding when abortion after 24 weeks is allowed to include circumstances when a physician determines a lethal fetal anomaly or that the fetus is incompatible with sustained life outside the uterus. Do you support or oppose this change?
