34. Three years ago, the Legislature passed, and Governor Maura Healey signed a law that officials said would give taxpayers $1 billion a year in tax relief, including through increased tax credits for parents, low-income workers, and seniors, and cutting taxes on short-term capital gains. Do you believe that law has helped you, not impacted you, or made no difference personally in terms of tax relief for you?

34. Three years ago, the Legislature passed, and Governor Maura Healey signed a law that officials said would give taxpayers $1 billion a year in tax relief, including through increased tax credits for parents, low-income workers, and seniors, and cutting taxes on short-term capital gains. Do you believe that law has helped you, not impacted you, or made no difference personally in terms of tax relief for you?

34. Three years ago, the Legislature passed, and Governor Maura Healey signed a law that officials said would give taxpayers $1 billion a year in tax relief, including through increased tax credits for parents, low-income workers, and seniors, and cutting taxes on short-term capital gains. Do you believe that law has helped you, not impacted you, or made no difference personally in terms of tax relief for you?

34. Three years ago, the Legislature passed, and Governor Maura Healey signed a law that officials said would give taxpayers $1 billion a year in tax relief, including through increased tax credits for parents, low-income workers, and seniors, and cutting taxes on short-term capital gains. Do you believe that law has helped you, not impacted you, or made no difference personally in terms of tax relief for you?

34. Three years ago, the Legislature passed, and Governor Maura Healey signed a law that officials said would give taxpayers $1 billion a year in tax relief, including through increased tax credits for parents, low-income workers, and seniors, and cutting taxes on short-term capital gains. Do you believe that law has helped you, not impacted you, or made no difference personally in terms of tax relief for you?
