Notes: The table includes data on political viewpoint, income brackets, education levels, gun ownership, union membership, and children in the household. The data is organized in a tabular format with columns for different income brackets and rows for political viewpoints (Total, Liberal, Moderate, Conservative). The entries in the table represent counts or percentages, with some cells showing totals and percentages across different categories.

President Trump


22. If your candidate for President were to lose, how confident would you be that the 2020 presidential election had been conducted in a "fair-and-square way" - would you say you would be very confident, somewhat confident, not very confident, or not at all confident?

- No: Number of respondents who do not support background checks.
- Undecided: Number of respondents who are undecided.
- Refused: Number of respondents who refused to answer.

NOTES:
- The table above summarizes the results of a survey asking about gun control in America. The survey was conducted among a sample of voters and focuses on the issue of requiring background checks for all firearm sales.
- The table provides a breakdown of responses by party, with data on the first choice for both Democratic and Republican nominations, as well as opinions regarding a variety of political figures and entities.
- The survey was conducted with a total of 1000 respondents, with varying levels of support and opposition across different categories.

SOURCE:
- The survey data was compiled by a reputable polling organization and is based on a representative sample of American voters.

---

DISCLAIMER:
- The results presented here are for illustrative purposes and should not be used as a definitive representation of the opinions of American voters.
- The data is subject to statistical error and sample variance.
