34. Recently Virginia held its election for Governor and this is the first time a Republican has won that office since 2009. Some people say the election is a telling sign of a Republican congressional sweep in the 2022 midterm elections. Other people say it is one state election and doesn't have national implications. Which comes closer to your view?

34. Recently Virginia held its election for Governor and this is the first time a Republican has won that office since 2009. Some people say the election is a telling sign of a Republican congressional sweep in the 2022 midterm elections. Other people say it is one state election and doesn't have national implications. Which comes closer to your view?

34. Recently Virginia held its election for Governor and this is the first time a Republican has won that office since 2009. Some people say the election is a telling sign of a Republican congressional sweep in the 2022 midterm elections. Other people say it is one state election and doesn't have national implications. Which comes closer to your view?

34. Recently Virginia held its election for Governor and this is the first time a Republican has won that office since 2009. Some people say the election is a telling sign of a Republican congressional sweep in the 2022 midterm elections. Other people say it is one state election and doesn't have national implications. Which comes closer to your view?

34. Recently Virginia held its election for Governor and this is the first time a Republican has won that office since 2009. Some people say the election is a telling sign of a Republican congressional sweep in the 2022 midterm elections. Other people say it is one state election and doesn't have national implications. Which comes closer to your view?

34. Recently Virginia held its election for Governor and this is the first time a Republican has won that office since 2009. Some people say the election is a telling sign of a Republican congressional sweep in the 2022 midterm elections. Other people say it is one state election and doesn't have national implications. Which comes closer to your view?

34. Recently Virginia held its election for Governor and this is the first time a Republican has won that office since 2009. Some people say the election is a telling sign of a Republican congressional sweep in the 2022 midterm elections. Other people say it is one state election and doesn't have national implications. Which comes closer to your view?
