29. Pennsylvania's minimum wage is $7.25 per hour, which is also the federal minimum wage. Governor Tom Wolf has proposed a $12 per hour minimum wage, and some lawmakers have suggested raising it to $15 an hour. Which of the following is closest to what you think the state minimum wage should be?

30. Some state legislators are calling for changing election laws to allow ``open primaries``, in which unaffiliated voters, also known as independents, could vote in either the Democratic or Republican primary to choose that party's nominee. Would you support a bill to have open primaries in Pennsylvania elections?
