

KNOW YOUR HOUSING RIGHTS IN MASSACHUSETTS!

Fair Housing Laws Protect Everyone Based On:

- Race
- Color
- Immigration status
- National origin
- Religion
- Disability
- Sex (including Gender Identity and Sexual Orientation)
- Families with children
- Using public assistance or housing voucher
- Age (over 40)
- Marital status
- Military status

Examples of Housing Discrimination:

- Treated differently based on race
- Denying housing to a family with a child under 6 because of lead paint
- Denied housing for having a voucher
- Refusing to allow service or support animal (or other reasonable accommodation requests)
- Denied housing for being transgender/ gender non-conforming

If you believe you have experienced discrimination contact:

Si usted cree que ha sido discriminado, llame a:

Suffolk University Housing Discrimination Testing Program
T: 617 884 7568

This material is based upon work supported by the Department of Housing and Urban Development under FHIP Grant No. FPEI20064