to the Office of Financial Aid's request for subsequent renewal LRAP paperwork, will result in full payment of this note.

Failure of the undersigned to make the monthly payments due as above stated within fifteen (15) days of each periodic due date shall render the entire amount due forthwith, at the option of Suffolk University. The undersigned agrees to pay, in addition to the above stated principal amount, all late charges, attorney's fees, and other reasonable collection costs and charges necessary for the collection of any amount not paid when due. Upon default of loan repayments, Suffolk University may disclose this information to credit bureau agencies.

If the undersigned shall die or become permanently disabled, the entire amount of this loan, together with any fees, shall be cancelled.

Demand, protest, and notice are hereby waived.

The undersigned acknowledges receipt of a copy of this promissory note.

The undersigned is required to inform the Suffolk University Law School Office of Financial Aid in writing within thirty (30) calendar days upon the occurrence of any of the following: (1) the recipient is no longer in the qualified job; (2) the recipient is no longer working the minimum 35 hours per week; or (3) the annual gross income of the recipient or the recipient's spouse exceeds the income limit as published at http://www.suffolk.edu/law/admission-aid/financial-aid/20965.php under "Loan Repayment Assistance Program." Upon such notice all future award payments will cease. Benefits received will become payable to Suffolk University in accordance with the terms set forth in this note. It is further agreed that the undersigned shall notify the Office of Financial Aid in writing within thirty (30) calendar days of changes in name, address, and/or employment status.

The undersigned acknowledges funds awarded under this program shall be used solely for payment of qualified educational loan payments pursuant to this program. The recipient must prove to the satisfaction of the Office of Financial Aid that the total amount of the award payment was used to pay the recipient's educational loan balances. In the event the funds are not so used, the recipient will not be continued in the program and future award payments will be terminated. Any funds received in excess of qualified loan payments will become payable to Suffolk University in accordance with the terms set forth in this note.
