The Washington, D.C. Alumni Chapter Scholarship

The Washington, D.C. Alumni Chapter Scholarship Committee is interested in reading an essay from you that includes your goals, personal and professional background, your perspective on the professional responsibilities of an attorney, and need for financial assistance.

Although the following list of questions is by no means comprehensive, nor is it required that you follow them, it will provide an indication of general criteria the committee may consider.

- Why did you choose to go to Suffolk University Law School?
- How has Law School contributed to your commitment to becoming an attorney?
- What is your goal in life?
- What is your goal as an attorney?
- Is there a particular person, incident or period in your life which inspired you to attend Law School?
- Is there any personal adversity, financial or otherwise which you have had to overcome to make it into Law School?
- What do you plan to do upon completion of Law School?
- Are you involved in any community activities? What have you learned from your involvement?
- Note any special interests, academic awards or honors, student activities or offices held, special papers or research projects.
- What do you feel are the most important qualities an attorney should possess?
- What was your involvement in your high school and/or college alumni association?
