All sponsorships will equally support the following funds:

Suffolk Law's Student Emergency Assistance Fund: Suffolk Law's Student Emergency Assistance Fund has provided small emergency grants to law students to help them complete their coursework. Support for this fund is now more important than ever, with a growing number of students needing emergency assistance because of COVID-19.

Professor Catherine T. Judge Scholarship:

Catherine T. Judge JD'57, LLM'60 served as the Suffolk University Law School Registrar from 1955-1967. In 1967, she became the Law School's first full-time female teacher and the first female full professor in 1974. Known as the "grande dame of Suffolk Law," she served our students for over 50 years.

Awards will be made to one or more students who are in their third year of the day division or their fourth year of the evening division at Suffolk University Law School.

For Platinum Sponsors:
In addition to serving as the lead sponsor for the All Rise event, the Platinum sponsor will also be listed as the lead sponsor for Suffolk Law's Student Diversity Dinner.* A highlight of the school's annual Diversity Week, our program celebrates the diverse backgrounds and experiences of our students, faculty and staff, administrators, and alumni.
