Proceeds raised at this event will benefit the Professor

Catherine T. Judge Scholarship. Catherine T. Judge JD'57, LLM'60 served as the Suffolk University Law School Registrar from 1955-1967. In 1967, she became the Law School's first full-time female teacher and the first female full professor in 1974. Known as the "grande dame of Suffolk Law," she served our students for over 50 years.

Awards will be made to one or more students who are in their third year of the day division or their fourth year of the evening division at Suffolk University Law School.

All sponsorships are tax-deductible.

For more information, please visit www.suffolk.edu/law/all-rise

For Platinum Sponsors: In addition to serving as the lead sponsor for the All Rise event, sponsors at the Platinum level will also be listed as the lead sponsor for Suffolk Law's Student Diversity Dinner. A highlight of the school's annual Diversity Week, our program Celebrates the diverse backgrounds and experiences of our students, faculty and staff, administrators, and alumni.*
