Happy New Year! As a new semester begins, the Moakley Law Library is here to remind you of all the amazing resources we have to help you succeed this semester. Familiarize yourself with our featured library services such as course reserves and interlibrary loan. Learn about how you can use our iCompete Writing collection to find writing competitions with cash prizes. On the subject of prizes: solve our featured riddle for a chance to win one of five prizes from the Moakley Law Library! Learn about this and more in this winter issue of the Moakley Law Library Newsletter.

Featured Library Services

Course Reserves

Looking for your course's assigned reading? The Law Library keeps at least two copies of required textbooks on reserve and one copy of recommended titles. Visit the circulation desk to learn more about course reserves.

You can access the Law Library's catalog anywhere, on any device! Our online catalog can be used to search all of our library’s materials, including print materials, e-books, videos, journals, and more. Clicking the “Map it” button in a catalog entry for print materials will let you know exactly where the book is located in the law library. Use the advanced search feature to find materials by course name, course...
Meet With a Research Librarian

The Research Desk is open Monday through Thursday, from 10am to 6pm and on Friday from 10am to 5pm. We’re available to answer questions related to finding primary and secondary legal authorities, getting started on writing a research paper, and supporting you during your internships and other legal work both during and after law school. Email us at lawref@suffolk.edu or give us a call at 617–573–8516.

Interlibrary Loan

Are you searching for a book/article that appears not to be in our circulating collection? Fear not! Suffolk Law has an interlibrary loan system. You can request a copy of any book or article from another academic institution when it is not currently in our collection or academic database subscriptions!

In order to request an ILL, please fill out the corresponding form on the law library website!

Tip: WorldCat.org is a great place to look for materials we do not have.

Headphones and Earplugs

Forget your headphones? Or, do you study better with no noise at all? Moakley Law Library has you covered!

Stop by the Circulation Desk and ask to check out a pair of headphones. While you're at it, pick up a pair of free earplugs from the basket on the table in front of the desk.

Scanning
Enjoy free scanning at the Moakley Law Library!

Patrons can access two scanners across from the Circulation Desk. Scan print materials to your email, USB drive, tablet, smartphone, or Office 365 account. Start scanning today!

Tools to Know About

Bluebook Resources

The library keeps a number of Bluebooks available on reserve for checkout. We also keep several copies of a User's Guide to the Bluebook, as well as our own library-maintained Bluebook Guide for Law Students.

iCompete Writing

Sharpen your writing skills and try for prizes up to $25,000!

Created and hosted by Suffolk University Law School's nationally ranked Legal Practice Skills program and Moakley Law Library, iCompete Writing contains one of the most comprehensive collections of law student writing competitions.

Browse regularly updated listings by date or topic. In each entry, you'll find the competition's name, date, and a link to the official page for more information.

Meet Our Legal Research Associate
The weather may be getting colder, but there’s a sunny new face at the legal research desk! For our featured interview, we’re sitting down with Julia Stern, Moakley’s new Legal Research Associate! Julia is native to Northern Mass.—and returns to Boston after stints in Ohio and Montana. She received a B.S in Psychology for undergrad at Bridgewater State University and attended the University of Cincinnati College of Law for her J.D. A notable advocate for campus anti-discrimination and accessibility, Julia hopes to bring these principles to the Suffolk scene. Julia has made a substantial contribution to our existing student resources with her creation of the human rights LibGuide.

One of her favorite aspects of her new position is supporting students and faculty at the research desk. She loves research and being able to connect patrons to our existing network of legal resources. In fact, Julia is interested in possibly pursuing a career in law librarianship in the future. By assisting in the development and creation of LibGuides for courses, Julia is always seeking to connect people with the most useful information for their own research!

A former theater-kid, Julia can be found listening to her favorite musicals in her spare time—or exploring Boston with her winter beverage of choice: hot apple cider.

A Law Riddle

A bus driver was heading down a street in Boston.
He went right past a stop sign without stopping.
He turned left where there was a ‘no left turn’ sign.
He went the wrong way on a one-way street.
Then he went on the left side of the road past a cop car. Still - he didn’t break any traffic laws. Why?

The first five (5) law students to email the correct answer to lawref@suffolk.edu by 11PM on February 9th will win a prize!

Participation is limited to current SULS law students only.

Tech Corner

OneTab

OneTab is a browser extension for Chrome, Firefox, Safari, and Microsoft Edge. When you find yourself researching with too many tabs open to keep track of, OneTab converts them into an easily manageable list. Whether you need to open just one or all of the tabs at once, OneTab has you covered. Converting all those tabs into the OneTab list also reduces your memory and CPU usage to help your machine run faster!

General Interest

"Here's a story every American should know. Cleanly and smartly, Jerry Mikorenda brings burgeoning 19th-century New York alive, laying bare the connections between his heroine's courageous stand and the long struggle for civil rights. America's First Freedom Rider is an impressive and inspiring weaving of our history and a timely reminder that one person can change the world." --Stewart O'Nan, author of The Circus Fire and Everyday People "Jerry Mikorenda brings to light the little-known story of civil rights champion Elizabeth Jennings, who broke racial barriers by integrating New York's transit system a century before Rosa Parks. This is an important addition to the city's complex history and one that should not be missed."
