

Moakley Law Library Newsletter

June 2022

The sky is blue and the birds are chirping. Summer is in full swing, and we are ready for it! There are generally 104 days of summer vacation, and we're finding a good way to spend them this summer at Moakley! Doing some bar prep, learning about Zotero and Jurism, naming a succulent garden, posting words of encouragement for our bar exam takers, and more! Come join us for this summer's edition of our newsletter, and set yourself up for a successful year by checking out what we have to offer.

Library Hours

CLOSED, Monday July 4, 2022

Summer 2022 Regular Hours

Mondays – Fridays: 8am – 11pm

Saturdays & Sundays: 9am – 11pm

Research Desk Hours

Email: lawref@suffolk.edu

Mondays – Thursdays: 10am – 6pm

Fridays: 10am – 5pm

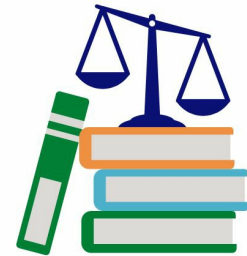

Legal research librarians are available by appointment outside of these times

Library hours are subject to change. Check our website here.

LibGuides to Know About

New Additions to the Study Aids and Exam Prep LibGuide!

Here you'll find law school exam resources, audio lectures and podcasts, and more about how to ace exams generally. We've added individual subject guides for several summer classes that include info about reviews, outlines, checklists, and practice exam questions in these subjects:

- Administrative Law
- Advanced Legal Writing
- Business Entity Fundamentals
- Employment Law
- Environmental Law
- Family Law
- Immigration Law
- Interviewing & Counseling
- Negotiation
- Trademark Law
- Trial Advocacy
- Trusts & Estates

If your professor recommends a particular study aid, consult that one before any others. That being said, try out different study aids and see which suits your method of studying best; what may work for others may not work for you. Be flexible.

Check Out Our FYSIP and Accelerator to Practice Research Guide!

Do your summer plans include a judicial or legal internship? Are you a research assistant for a faculty member or working on your writing requirement? Check out our FYSIP and Accelerator to Practice Research Guide for a curated list of resources that include:

- Law firm research resources
- Judicial clerkship resources
- Resources by court and subject
- Researching dockets
- And more!

Zotero and Jurism

Zotero is an all-in-one tool that lets you save, organize, and cite resources with a few simple clicks. With this open-source software, you can auto-generate citations and bibliographies and share resource libraries online.

Jurism is free software based on

Zotero, though it is designed with legal researchers in mind. It can sync and share libraries with zotero.org, and it is easy to switch from Zotero to Jurism while saving all of your work.

Check out our LibGuide or contact lawref@suffolk.edu to learn more about using Zotero and Jurism to organize and cite resources and create bibliographies with a few simple clicks.

Westlaw and Lexis+ Summer Use Policy

Westlaw

You can use Thomson Reuters products, including Westlaw®, Practical Law, and the Practice Ready solutions over the summer for non-commercial research. You can turn to these resources to gain understanding and build confidence in your research skills, but you cannot use them in situations where the work you are doing is related to a paying client.

Examples of permissible uses for your academic password include the following:

- Summer coursework
- Research assistant assignments
- Law Review or Journal research
- Moot Court research
- Non-Profit work
- Clinical work
- Externship sponsored by the school

You do not have to do anything to gain access to these tools over the summer.

Lexis+

Once again, Lexis is providing full access to Lexis+® through student law school IDs throughout the months of May, June, July and August. Continued access includes tools, search history and the same exclusive content and practical guidance they have relied on all year long. Whether clerking, interning or working at a firm, students can use their law school access.*

Prepare to Practice

There's still time for students to complete the popular LexisNexis Prepare to Practice program that helps students succeed in summer and permanent employment. On-demand activities focused on the practical skills that summer associates and new associates identified as critical to their success. A new module added to the program covers legal analytics.

- LexisNexis Prepare to Practice Microsite
- LexisNexis Certification Registry

*Employers may prefer summer associates use a firm provided ID for client work.

Westlaw and Lexis+ Access for Graduates

Westlaw

All 2022 SULLS graduates can use Thomson Reuters products, including Westlaw and Practical Law, for a full eighteen (18) months after graduation. Your "Grad Elite" access gives you 60 hours of usage per month. That means you can access Westlaw remotely, from any device, anywhere, for personal and work projects. If you haven't already, be sure to go to the Westlaw homepage log in, then use the drop-down menu by your name to go to Grad Elite Status. Or you may click on this link.

Contact mark.frongillo@thomsonreuters.com if you have any questions

Lexis+

Through student law school IDs all 2022 SULLS graduates will have access to Lexis+ for six months after graduation. This is done automatically and students do not need to sign up. If you are going to work for a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, you can apply to extend this access for one year following graduation through the Lexis Aspire program. You can apply for an ASPIRE ID using this form.

Bar Study at Moakley Law Library

Studying for the bar exam?

May 2022 SULLS grads studying for the bar can reserve a study room by visiting the seating reservation system to book a spot.

A Word to Our Graduates

Encouragement & Support Board!

Studying for the bar requires dedication and commitment! The Moakley Law Library is here to support you every step of the way! This board is dedicated to you, your mental health, and all the good vibes and kindness you deserve.

Want to contribute? Click here to add your message!

Meet Our Legal Research and Innovation Librarian

Our new Legal Research and Innovation Librarian is a familiar face. AnnaKatherine Wherren has served as a Legal Research Librarian at SULS for the past three years. In this new position, AnnaKatherine will keep students, faculty, and staff up to date on relevant technologies and innovations to help them in their work and studies, as well as serve as Liaison to the Institute of Law Practice Technology and Innovation.

Originally from Northeast Louisiana, AnnaKatherine came to Boston for law school and stayed for love (though, the seasons aren't half-bad). She got her J.D. down the street at New England Law | Boston and her M.L.I.S. at Simmons University. Before coming to Suffolk, AnnaKatherine worked in public librarianship at the Sawyer Free Library in Gloucester. She is happy to be in the academic sphere and likes helping both students and faculty succeed in their research goals.

When she isn't wearing her librarian fez, AnnaKatherine is a distinguished consumer of strawberry ice cream and the science-fiction genre (TNG > TOS, an opinion she'll stand by in person and in print). She can also be found enjoying the beach in Gloucester with her husband and two young children. The family has seven—yes, you read that correctly—cats to keep them on their toes as well.

AnnaKatherine appreciates the community atmosphere of Suffolk, especially within the law school. Next time you need research help (or a piece of candy), please stop by the research desk and say hello!

Funtivity!

There is still time to name the Bench!

The law library has acquired a new batch of succulents and now they need names! Complete the poll to get a chance to name them and create your ideal Supreme Court bench of past justices. Choose up to nine names and submit your pick!

Name the bench!

HELLO
my name is

Click here.

CREATE YOUR IDEAL SUPREME COURT BENCH OF PAST JUSTICES.

NAME THE BENCH!

 Complete the poll!

Rules:

- Current Suffolk Law students and May 2022 SMLS graduates may participate in the poll.
- Only one (1) entry per current and May 2022 SMLS graduates.
- Choose up to nine (9) justices.
- The nine (9) justices with the most votes will have succulents named after them.
- The names will be published in the Law Library's Fall Newsletter. Stay tuned!

New Arrivals

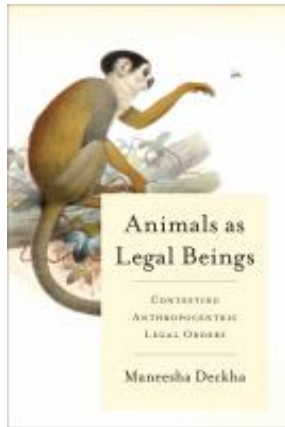

General Interest

The accidental history of the U.S. immigration courts : war, fear, and the roots of dysfunction / Alison Peck

“Sometimes there are books that leave you much better for the experience. This is one of them. . . . Alison Peck has filled a major gap, setting out a roadmap toward possible legislative alternatives to this unsatisfactory arrangement by offering the Title I Tax Court as a better option. If this is to happen, it will almost certainly have to be as a function of comprehensive immigration reform, a tantalizing oasis in the current political desert. If that happens, I will listen to her very carefully, as I did here.”

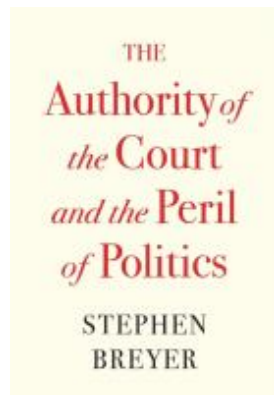

— Southwestern Historical

Animals as legal beings : contesting anthropocentric legal orders / Manesha Deckha

Are you with me? : Kevin Boyle and the rise of the human rights movement / Mike Chinoy

The authority of the Court and the peril of politics / Stephen Breyer

“Breyer...has thought deeply about judicial power, the rule of law, and the role of the judiciary in the American polity... His voice is a powerful one, and the brevity of this book, together with its readability, should ensure its lasting influence... An important document on American civics.”

—Bryan A. Garner, Wall Street Journal

Birthing a movement : midwives, law, and the politics of reproductive care / Renée Ann Cramer

Academic and Professional

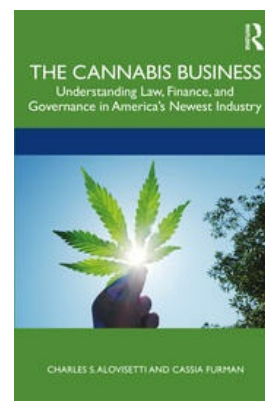

The art of law teaching / Lutz-Christian Wolff

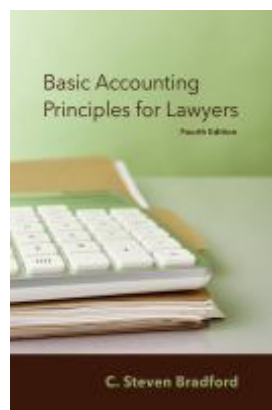

At the margins of globalization indigenous peoples and international economic law/ Sergio Puig

"The vast amount of information available to explain the cannabis industry is often an exercise in confusion, miscommunication, patently false assertions, or brash opinion. This book is one of the few instances where professionals, both skilled and unskilled within cannabis, can get a grounded tutorial for today's considerations and tomorrow's opportunities."

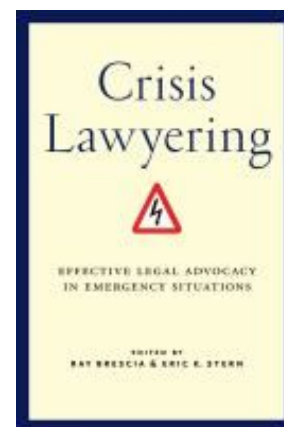

— Mike Siebold, Cannabis Advisor

The cannabis business : understanding law, finance, and governance in America's newest industry / Charles S. Alovsetti and Cassia Furman

Basic accounting principles for lawyers / C. Steven Bradford, Henry M. Grether

Crisis lawyering : effective legal advocacy in emergency situations / edited by Ray Brescia and Eric K. Stern

Take a look at all of our new materials here.

Check out our previous editions here.

Moakley Law Library | Website