WRI 101 M1 - FIRST YEAR WRITING I

Instructor Information:
Instructor: Tracy Wood
Email: twood@suffolk.es
Homepage: www.suffolk.edu/madrid-campus/academics/faculty

Course Information:
Catalog Description: Study of the writing process and revision in terms of expository writing modes for an academic reader and audience.
Instructor’s Additional Course Description: This course studies persuasive and expository writing in the essay form through frequent writing assignments based on critical readings of class texts and discussions. The aims of this course are to consolidate and expand on writing and reading skills in order to increase the student’s capacity to read and write correctly and logically. Various rhetorical principles and techniques, including argument and persuasion, are discussed, analyzed in readings, and incorporated into students’ essays.
Credit Hours: 4

This course follows the US Federal Government's Credit Hour definition: “An amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutional established equivalence that reasonably approximates no less than:

1. One hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out of class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester or trimester hour of credit, or ten to twelve weeks for one quarter hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time; or
2. At least an equivalent amount of work as required in paragraph (1) of this definition for other academic activities as established by the institution including laboratory work, internships, practica, studio work, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours.”

Mid Term Essay Exam: This essay exam will be written in class during the mid-term week. You will be asked to respond to readings announced and studied ahead of time. This essay exam may not be made up and revision of it is not allowed.

Course Policies:
Late assignments: Excused or unexcused absences are not justification for late assignments. Please submit in advance (in my mailbox or via email) any assignments on the day on which they are due. Note: It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that the professor receives the document on time. Essays received after class will be considered late and will be marked down one full letter grade for each week they are late.

Classroom policies:
Class Behavior: Students are expected to come to class equipped with a copy of the required texts and other pertinent materials. Correct classroom behavior is also expected. Eating and drinking (with the exception of water) are not permitted. Mobile phones should be turned off or put in the “silent” mode.

Participation/Attendance Policy:
The SUMC Student Handbook states the following:

Once a student is registered for a course, attendance at every meeting of every class is expected, including those held in the first week of the semester. A maximum of two unjustified absences is permitted. Each additional absence will cause the final course grade to be lowered by one-third of a letter grade, i.e., from A to A−; A− to B+; B+ to B, etc.

Excessive absences in a course will have a negative effect on the final grade. When a student is absent, the quality of his or her work in a course will deteriorate since material missed in class sessions can rarely be made up satisfactorily, even though the student remains responsible for that work.

Please note that even when a student has a justified reason for missing class, such as illness, the negative academic impact on learning will be the same as if the absence were for spurious reasons.

In this course, any absence due to illness should be justified by a note from the student’s physician or other health professional confirming the day(s) on which the student was unable to attend class. A written excuse from a student’s host parent or residence supervisor is also acceptable.

Participation in class is essential to a positive learning experience. Your participation grade will be based upon your attendance, ability to turn in daily assignments and essays on time as well as contributing to class discussion and group activities.

Please note: I take attendance every class day and participation points may not be made up if you are absent; moreover, frequent absences will lower your course grade and may result in an “F” grade. So please hand in any material due on a day that you may be absent in advance. Students are responsible for all material and assignments for the days missed, regardless of the reason for the absence. In sum, please participate and attend class because it counts in your grade, and, more importantly, you will learn more.

Disability Statement:
If you anticipate issues related to the format or requirements of this course, please meet with me. I would like us to discuss ways to ensure your full participation in my classroom.

If formal, disability-related accommodations are necessary, it is very important that you be registered with the Office of Disability Services (ODS) at the main Campus in Boston so that I am notified of your eligibility for reasonable accommodations. We can then plan how best to coordinate your accommodations. Check the ODS web site at www.suffolk.edu/disability for information on accommodations.
Student Resources:
SUMC provides a range of student services, both academic and personal. To learn more about course-related tutorials and academic workshops, refer to the SUMC Student Handbook, Section 2 “Academic Policies and Services”. Section 5, “Living in Madrid”, contains information on the medical and mental health resources, including an English-speaking therapist, available to you.

Midterm Review:
At midterm, around week 6, you will be given a midterm grade based on your progress to date (performance on assignments, quizzes and midterm exam). Midterm grades of C- or below will be reported to the Madrid Campus Academic Standing Committee, with an explanation of what I believe has contributed to that grade: excessive absences, poor time management or study skills, lack of effort, difficulty with the course material or with writing or language skills, etc. The Academic Standing Committee or I may contact you to suggest strategies for addressing these difficulties. I strongly encourage you to visit me during my office hours so we may discuss how you can be successful in this class.

Academic Misconduct:
www.suffolk.edu/about/mission-history/policies-procedures/academic-misconduct-policy
Suffolk University expects all students to be responsible individuals with high standards of conduct. Students are expected to practice ethical behavior in all learning environments and scenarios, including classrooms and laboratories, internships and practica, and study groups and academic teams. Cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, use of unauthorized electronic devices, self-plagiarism, fabrication or falsification of data, and other types of academic misconduct are treated as serious offenses that initiate a formal process of inquiry, one that may lead to disciplinary sanctions.

Student work will be thoroughly examined for academic integrity and may be scanned using plagiarism detection software. A faculty member suspecting academic misconduct will contact the student using the Suffolk email address to schedule a meeting and will make all effort to do so within five business days of detecting the incident. During the meeting, the faculty member will present the documentation that led to suspected academic misconduct. Resolution of the incident will be according to the procedures outlined in the SUMC Student Handbook.

If you have any questions about using someone else’s work in your essay, please check with me first.

Academic Grievances Policy:

Course Schedule:
The schedule, policies, procedures, and assignments in this course are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances, by mutual agreement, and/or to ensure better learning.

Please complete and be ready to discuss all reading assignments (not videos) the day for which they are assigned.

Readings assignment with page numbers can be found in the textbook. Reading assignments marked "BB" can be found on Blackboard.
