Effects of Adding & Dropping Courses

Tuition Effects:

If you drop a course, based on your course load, you may be responsible for FORFEITURE CHARGES — a percentage of tuition based on what point in the semester you drop. This policy also applies to total withdrawal from the University. Please refer to the bursar's website for a schedule of forfeiture charges at www.suffolk.edu/bursar.

Financial Aid Effects:

- A change in your enrollment status may result in a revised financial aid award. Mass Grant, Gilbert Grant and numerous other financial aid programs require FULL-TIME enrollment. Refer to the "Everything you need to know about your award letter" brochure at the financial aid section of the Suffolk website for details.
- Contact your financial aid counselor regarding impact of aid if repeating a course.
- You must be enrolled for AT LEAST 6 CREDITS to be eligible for most forms of financial aid.

Contact your Financial Aid Counselor to determine how dropping or adding a course may impact your financial aid.

Faculty Information – Prerequisite Override:

Faculty have a responsibility to follow departmental practices when overriding a course prerequisite and should consult with their Department Chairperson for any questions regarding these exceptions. Procedures may vary across departments and/or courses depending on the prerequisite(s). The UG Academic Advising Center can assist a faculty member with determining the validity of the student's specific request but will not make a final decision on access to the course.
