2026-2027 Appeal Application

If you wish to appeal the aid awarded by the Office of Student Financial Services you must complete this application in full. Please remember Student Financial Services has already extended our best possible offer based on available funding and information reported on your application.

This appeal should be based on changes to your family circumstances which are not reflected on your 2026-2027 FAFSA. If the student's file has been selected for Verification, the file must be complete and verified before this appeal will be reviewed.

Note to new students:* Suffolk University does not match offers from other schools. Appeals requesting an award match from another university will not result in an increased award package.

5. Explanation/Comments. Please indicate reason for the appeal:

All appeals must be accompanied by supporting documentation. For example, if you are appealing as a result of illness, include copies of medical bills, doctor's statements, etc. If you are appealing on the basis of unemployment, you must submit verification such as a letter from your employer, copies of your last pay stub, verification of unemployment benefits, etc. Please remember to attach supporting documentation. After submission, your financial aid counselor may reach out to you to request additional information or documents.

Note: If you receive any additional funding through the appeal process for this academic year, renewal of that funding may not be awarded for subsequent years. In other words, increased aid awarded now is not guaranteed for the future. Your signature below indicates that you understand this appeal process.
