

Nathan R. Miller Scholars Program Contract

Congratulations on your acceptance to Suffolk University and the Nathan R. Miller Boston Scholars Program. This award will offset educational expenses at the University. It will be used towards undergraduate tuition charges only (including study abroad semesters) and is renewable for up to 8 consecutive semesters. Please be advised that you must re-apply annually with the FAFSA and continue to demonstrate the same need level. Nathan Miller Scholars are limited to total scholarship funding from all sources, which cannot exceed your total Cost of Attendance at Suffolk University. If an outside/additional award is received, it may necessitate a reduction in this award and/or other forms of funding previously awarded to you by the Office of Student Financial Services.

Nathan Miller Scholars will:

1. Attend one of the new student orientation sessions in June.
2. Participate in seminars offered during the academic year. Ample notice will be provided.
3. Attend program sponsored cultural events each semester.
4. Achieve a minimum cumulative G.P.A of 2.8 as a full-time student and remain enrolled full time.
5. Meet with the program coordinator during the semester.
(detailed information about the events and activities listed above will be communicated to you at a later date)

Please return this signed contract electronically to Spierre-vil@suffolk.edu no later than May 1, 2026

Tuition deposits are also due by May 1, 2026

I understand, accept and agree to comply with all terms and conditions of the Nathan R. Miller Boston Scholars Program including those listed above. In addition, I certify I have read and agree to all terms included in the financial aid section of the website. www.suffolk.edu/finaid
