SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY MISSION STATEMENT

At Suffolk University we are driven by the power of education, inclusion, and engagement to change lives and positively impact communities. Committed to excellence, we provide students with experiential and transformational learning opportunities that begin in the center of Boston, reach across the globe, and lead to extraordinary outcomes for our graduates.

HISTORY OF SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY 1906–2025

For 119 years, Suffolk University has been transforming lives by preparing students for professional success, personal growth, and positive community impact. From its roots as a small evening law school with a handful of students, Suffolk has evolved into a major institution with strong ties to more than 90,000 alumni and employers throughout the world.

Building on the promise of its founding, Suffolk continues to anticipate and respond to the needs of a diverse student body. Students combine traditional classroom studies with experiential and immersive learning opportunities and career-shaping internships at influential institutions, and they forge strong, essential connections with academic and professional mentors.

Suffolk students benefit from their close proximity to the core of Boston's economy, including the key business, healthcare, biotechnology, higher education, and start-up industries that define the city. Collaborations with the Boston Celtics, the state judiciary, Boston City Hall, Boston Public Schools, Habitat for Humanity, the Museum of African American History, and many other entities immerse faculty members and students in groundbreaking scholarship and community engagement. Upon graduation, Suffolk students are well prepared to address complex challenges and make a difference in the world.

The University's reputation for excellence draws students from across the nation and world to its urban campus. Students come from a variety of economic and cultural backgrounds to foster a vibrant and close-knit environment, with programming that enriches not only the academic, but also the social and personal development of all students. In addition, they gain international experience through study abroad programs, global travel seminars, and service-learning trips.

Paying It Forward

From its earliest incarnation, Suffolk University has opened doors to students determined to better their lives through education.

Founder Gleason Archer Sr. hailed from rural Maine and worked hard to support his law school aspirations. He was fortunate in meeting a benefactor, George Frost, who paid for Archer's education and asked only that Archer pass his generosity along to others. Archer took this advice to heart and in 1906 began teaching law at his home in the evenings. In founding Suffolk Law, he sought to provide a legal education for those who traditionally lacked the opportunity to study law.

The school now known as the College of Arts & Sciences was founded in 1934. Two years later, the predecessor to the Sawyer Business School welcomed its first students. All three schools were incorporated as Suffolk University that same year. In time, the University expanded from a night-school format to comprise a range of full- and part-time programs.

Commitment to Diversity and Public Service

For over a century, Suffolk has provided transformative educational opportunities to students of all backgrounds and circumstances, with women as well as Black, Asian, and Native American, students finding a home in our earliest years when they were often turned away at other institutions. Embracing a diverse student population has always been at Suffolk's core, making it the rich institution it is today.

Suffolk has a long, well-established tradition of public service. Many alumni have been appointed to the judiciary and elected to public office at the state, local, and national levels; some began their terms in office while studying at Suffolk. And Suffolk alumni apply their skills to benefit their fellow citizens in nonprofits, the private sector, and public sector.

A Strong Alumni Network

When they graduate, Suffolk students join a proud and active alumni community, which features innovators and leaders in various fields around the globe. Suffolk alumni are deeply invested in the University and show their commitment by paying it forward, hiring students and graduates as interns and employees; coming back to mentor, teach, and share their experiences; and providing financial support.

Looking to the Future

Suffolk's defining feature is our abiding commitment to student success, a value shared not only by our dedicated faculty but also our administrators, staff, and alumni. This vibrant community sustains us as we look forward, strengthening our commitment to providing a dynamic, globally minded education, steeped in experiential learning, in the heart of downtown Boston.

ABOUT THE SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

For nearly 120 years, Suffolk Law graduates have achieved extraordinary professional success. You can find our 24,000 alumni practicing in firms of all sizes, from Wall Street to Main Street. They are leaders in state and federal government; general counsel of global companies; judges, prosecutors, and criminal defense lawyers; and they make a social impact through a wide range of other public interest and public service careers. Many use their degrees to succeed in related fields, such as business, education, and finance. Their collective imprint on the region and the country is remarkable: For example, more than 25 percent of Massachusetts state court judges and more than 40 percent of Rhode Island judges are Suffolk Law graduates.

Suffolk Law students learn essential practice skills in our highly ranked programs. They start off in our first-year legal research and writing class, which was recently ranked the third-best such program in the nation. During their last year of law school, students spend tens of thousands of hours on client advocacy through the school's clinical program, which was recently ranked No. 8 in the nation. Our supervised student attorneys take on a wide range of cases, from eviction and immigrant justice to representing small businesses and inventors in intellectual property matters.

Between their first and last years at Suffolk Law, students have access to highly regarded competition teams and negotiation training. In fact, we are the only law school in the country with four U.S. News top-35-ranked legal skills specialties — clinics, dispute resolution, legal writing, and trial advocacy—for ten years in a row (2017–26 editions).

Suffolk Law is also consistently ranked among a handful of the most innovative schools in the nation, offering bold educational and career-focused initiatives. Bloomberg Law has named the school a top-15 innovator for two years running (2023 and 2024), and National Jurist has ranked Suffolk Law's legal tech program as the best in the nation on multiple occasions. Whether it comes to traditional practice skills or the cutting-edge training that lawyers need to succeed in the 21st century, Suffolk Law is a leader.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE AND SYMBOLS

The academic attire worn during Commencement originated at medieval universities. The long black gown, the basic garment of academic attire, was worn for warmth and to conceal food (and sometimes wine) to be consumed between lectures. The hood—the most colorful raiment—was used as a cowl, an alms sack, or to protect the wearer’s wig from the elements.

The color of the hood trimming signifies the wearer’s academic degree, and the hood lining reflects the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree. Here are the colors you’ll see at today’s ceremonies:

White—Bachelor of Arts

Yellow—Bachelor of Science or Master of Science in Mental Health Counseling, Mental Health Counseling/MSJCS, Mental Health Counseling/MPA, Crime & Justice Studies, Crime & Justice Studies/MSMHC, Crime & Justice Studies/MPA, Crime & Justice Studies/JD, Medical Dosimetry, Applied Developmental Psychology, or Clinical Psychology

Copper—Master of Science in Economics

Crimson—Master of Arts in Communication

Magenta—Bachelor of Science in Journalism

Sage Green—Master of Healthcare Administration

Drab Olive—Bachelor of Science in Business Administration or Master of Business Administration; Executive Master of Business Administration; or Master of Science in Business Analytics, Accounting, Finance, Marketing; or Master in Management and Organizational Leadership

Dark Blue—Master of Arts in Applied Politics, Applied Politics/MPA, Global Public Policy, or Global Public Policy/MPA, or Master of Science in Ethics & Public Policy, Political Science, or Political Science/MPA

Peacock Blue—Master of Public Administration

Light Blue—Master of Education in Administration of Higher Education or Certificate of Disability Services in Higher Education

Blue/Violet—Master of Arts in Interior Architecture or Graphic Design

Purple—Juris Doctor

Business students inducted into the Beta Gamma Sigma International Honor Society wear a royal blue satin honor stole outlined in gold with the Beta Gamma Sigma key logo. Public administration students inducted into the Pi Alpha Alpha National Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration wear blue-and-gold cords.

Other colors and patterns of stoles represent Suffolk University’s veteran population and student leadership and cultural groups.

THE MACE

For each school ceremony, an alumni marshal leads the academic procession carrying a mace. The mace originally was a weapon; its ceremonial descendant confers an air of authority on those leading formal pageants. Student marshals also participate in the academic procession and carry smaller versions of the mace.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The Suffolk University seal features the University motto, Honestas et Diligentia, or Honesty and Diligence, and the founding year, 1906. The image comprises a standard and torch flanked by single stars, and Beacon Hill is pictured in the background.
