

00:01 Hi there. My name is Ma'chel, I'm a theater student, and I'm from Chelsea, Massachusetts.

00:04 Right now, we are in our Modern Theater, where we put up our theater productions and other performances for our community.

00:09 Let me show you around.

00:20 The theater first opened in 1914, and it was repainted with this beautiful mural by the famous Broadway senior designer John Lee Beatty.

00:29 Here we do 15 different student-produced shows.

00:31 And the great thing about it is that you don't have to be a theater major to be a part of them.

00:36 One of the favorite performances I was a part of was Everybody.

00:39 It was an extremely challenging piece that talked about life and death. And I got to slide down a ramp!

00:48 One of the great things about this program is that you don't learn just the performance aspect of theater,

00:52 but also the production side.

00:54 I'm actually producing my own show that I had written and directed called Flicker next semester.

00:59 Thanks for joining me on a tour of the Modern Theater. Come and see one of our 15 productions.

00:01:03 (WHISPERING) Quiet. The show's about to start!
