& Our Approach to Education & Career-Readiness

11:30 a.m.–12 p.m.

Suffolk students delve into fields they love and then lead careers that matter to them, their communities, and the world. Our academic deans; the executive director of our Center for Career Equity, Development & Success; and current students will discuss how career-readiness drives the Suffolk experience both inside and outside the classroom.

Home Sweet Boston

Suffolk students learn and live in the heart of our international city. A panel of current students will talk about the exciting ways you can meet friends, get involved, and make the most of your time in and around Boston.
